

At West Yellowstone, we welcome travelers who pride themselves on finding the road less traveled. From winding trails and scenic drives to native berries and local brews, West Yellowstone is calling you to 'wonder' on.

NATURE NOTES:

- Nationally-ranked trout fishing
- Wild bison and elk spottings
- Over 300 native bird species
- World-renowned grizzly rescue center

STONE'S THROW:

- Closest entrance to Old Faithful & the Grand Prismatic
- Completely surrounded by National Parks and Forests
- Day trip to Mesa Falls and Teton Scenic Byway

We're delighted to share a little piece of home with you.

PICK YOUR PATH

SUMMER

Yellowstone Giant Screen Theatre

Enjoy education by day and feature films by night at this one-of-a-kind theatre nestled right by the entrance to Yellowstone National Park.

Museum of the Yellowstone

Uncover our history and heritage of travel to and through Yellowstone National Park.

Grizzly & Wolf Discovery Center

Come safely view and discover the animals that call this area home – the grizzly bears, wolves, river otters and birds of prey are sure to delight.

Photography

Be still and capture the quiet serenity around you. Early morning shoots are known for superb sunrises and wildlife spottings.

Earthquake Lake Historic Drive and Visitor Center

Learn all about the quake that shook the area to its core in 1959 and changed the landscape forever.

Local Treats

Feast your eyes (and stomach) on the Huckleberry. A native wild berry, taste a piece of our area with huckleberry margaritas, ice cream, and scones.

WINTER

Watering Holes

Parched travelers are always encouraged to pull up a stool and sip on Montana brews at any of our local watering holes every day of the week.

Sunset Views

Bask in the glow of a stunning winter sunset over Hebgen Lake. It's nothing short of magic.

Scenic Drive

Roam through open, winding roads to see frosted treetops and frozen waterfalls at every turn.

Shopping

Swing by our local shops to score Montana-made pottery, jewelry, and more.

Snow Hill @ Pioneer Park

Unlock your inner child while playing in the snow and zipping down our sled hill.

This is just a taste of what West Yellowstone has to offer. For help planning longer trips, download our full trip planner.

PICK YOUR SEASON. PICK YOUR PASSION.
PICK YOUR PATH.

